PROFILE

I have looked after mothers in Lahore for over twelve years. Pregnancy is exciting and scary at once, and I want every woman to feel informed rather than rushed. I support normal delivery wherever it is safe and explain clearly when a C-section is the better choice.

EXPERIENCE

Consultant Gynaecologist Bahria Women's Clinic	2018 – now
Senior Registrar Canal View Teaching Hospital	2015 – 2018
Resident, Obstetrics & Gynaecology Canal View Teaching Hospital	2012 – 2015

EDUCATION

FCPS Obstetrics & Gynaecology College of Physicians & Surgeons Pakistan	2016
MBBS Lahore	2011

SKILLS

Antenatal care · Normal delivery · PCOS · Infertility workup · Menopause · Pap smears

AREAS OF CARE

Pregnancy care - A visit plan for all nine months, with the reasons behind each test.

PCOS - Irregular periods, acne and weight, treated as one condition.

Trying to conceive - A respectful first step for couples who are worried.

Menopause - Hot flushes, sleep and bone health, discussed openly.
